

WORLD BULLETIN

Turkey's PM visits Muslim Heritage Exhibition in London

A total of 80,000 people visited the exhibition since it was opened two months ago.

Tuesday, 16 March 2010 16:23

Turkish Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdogan visited "1001 Inventions: Discover The Muslim Heritage In Our World" exhibition at Museum of Science in London on Tuesday.

Turkish state ministers Cemil Cicek, Zafer Caglayan, Egemen Bagis and Foreign Minister Ahmet Davutoglu also visited the exhibition together with Erdogan.

A total of 80,000 people visited the exhibition since it was opened two months ago.

"1001 Inventions: Discover the Muslim Heritage in Our World" traces the forgotten story of a thousand years of science from the Muslim world, from the 7th century onwards. The exhibition, which runs from the January 21 to June 30, 2010, looks at the social, scientific and technological achievements that are credited to the Muslim world, whilst celebrating the shared scientific heritage of other cultures.

AA