LUIS MÁRQUEZ IN THE WORLD OF TOMORROW: MEXICAN IDENTITY AND THE 1939-40 NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR

Ongoing, through 3/06/11

Opening Reception: November 14, 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. at Queens Museum of Art, Flushing Meadows Corona Park. This exhibition features over 80 photographs by Luis Márquez (1899-1978), the official photographer for and art adviser of the Mexican Pavilion at the 1939-40 World's Fair. Márquez fostered the image of a folkloric Mexico in photographic styles ranging from anthropological document to ironic theatrical tableau-vivant, often posing Pavilion dancers in their elaborate folk costumes against the ultra-modern World's Fair pavilion architecture.
